

Cold Weather Operations Seminar Anchorage, AK • March 23-26, 2015 CALL FOR PAPERS

The ARFF Working Group is issuing a call-for-papers for our “Cold Weather Operations Seminar”. To be held in Anchorage, AK, March 23-26, 2015. We are looking for subjects that will attract attendance and be particularly related to cold weather operations. Some of these topics include, but are not limited to:

- Case studies on events and aircraft accidents
- Single ARFF Operator
- Aircraft Familiarization
- Planning an effective triennial with limited personnel

We are asking for no more than a 250 word abstract on the subject to be presented. The abstracts should be received as soon as practical, but we will accept submissions until August 29, 2014. Please complete the form at the bottom of this page with all requested information including your abstract. All abstracts should be submitted in electronic format by e-mail to info@arffwg.org. If e-mail is not available, abstracts may be mailed to ARFF Working Group, P.O. Box 1539, Grapevine, TX 76051.

You will be notified no later than October 25, 2014 if your abstract is accepted.

As an IRS 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Organization, the ARFF Working Group strives to keep our attendee registration low to encourage airports with limited budgets to attend these important training and educational programs. Therefore, funding for travel and accommodations is usually not available.

All speakers selected to present will be asked to follow-up their presentation with an article to be placed in ARFF News. Articles should be no less than 1,000 and no more than 2,000 words as a guideline. Articles will be due within 45 days from the close of the conference. Submission of your abstract will be confirmation that you will agree with this condition.
