

In Partnership with the The FAA William J. Hughes Technical Center

EXHIBITORS AND SPONSORSHIP

Presents:

“Technology and the ARFF Industry”

Section 1 Seminar • May 6-8, 2014• Atlantic City, NJ

The ARFF Working Group and the FAA William J. Hughes Technical Center will once again partner for a 2-day training program to benefit the aviation firefighting industry worldwide.

The FAA William J. Hughes Technical Center (Technical Center) is one of the nation's premier aviation research, development, test and evaluation facilities. Its world-class laboratories and top-notch engineering place the Technical Center at the forefront of the FAA's challenge to modernize the U.S. air transportation system. The Technical Center serves as the FAA national scientific test base for research and development, test and evaluation, and verification and validation in air traffic control, communications, navigation, airports, aircraft safety, and security. The Technical Center is the primary facility supporting the nation's Next Generation Air Transportation System, called NextGen.

EXHIBITORS & SPONSORSHIP

Do you want an appreciative audience to showcase your product or deliver information on your company's products or services? Vendor representatives can use this time to speak to and interact directly with interested and potential clients. You will also have the opportunity to be a part of the training process on your equipment, product or service.

➤ Product Demonstrations

The FAA Technical Center is offering a unique opportunity for vendors to demonstrate products at this event (Thursday 5/8). Product demonstration descriptions will need to be submitted for review by the FAA Tech Center. Product demos must be approved in advance. Not all products will be approved. This will also be on a first come first serve basis and be limited. To participate, please send your product demo description and requirements (set-up time, length of demo) to info@arffwg.org. It will then be forwarded to the Technical Center for review.
